21st International Conference on
USER MODELING, ADAPTATION, AND PERSONALIZATION
Rome, Italy - June 10-14, 2013

UMAP is the premier international conference for researchers and practitioners working on systems that adapt to their individual users, or to groups of users, and collect and represent information about users for this purpose. UMAP is the successor to the biennial User Modeling and Adaptive Hypermedia conferences that were merged in 2009. It is organized under the auspices of User Modeling Inc.

The 21st edition UMAP 2013 will be held in Rome, Italy, at Roma Tre University.

The conference spans a wide scope of topics related to user modeling and personalization, including construction of user models, adaptive responses, tailoring of search results, recommending products, Web usage mining, collaborative and content-based filtering.
