

IBM Software Group

DB2 Express-C 9 overview course

DB2 Client Connectivity

DB2 Information Management Software

ON DEMAND BUSINESS™

Setup required at the server

■ From the Configuration Assistant

a) DB2COMM

Choose Configure → DB2 Registry

b) SVCENAME

Choose Configure → DBM configuration
Find “Communications” section.

Or

■ From the Control Center

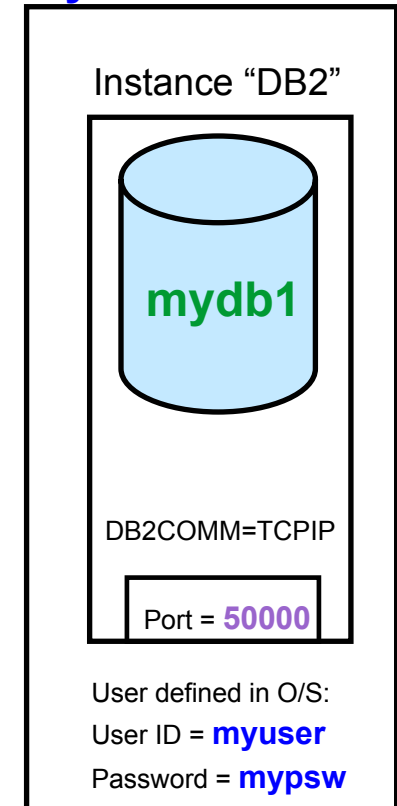

a) DB2COMM

Right click on instance and choose “Set up communications...”

b) SVCENAME

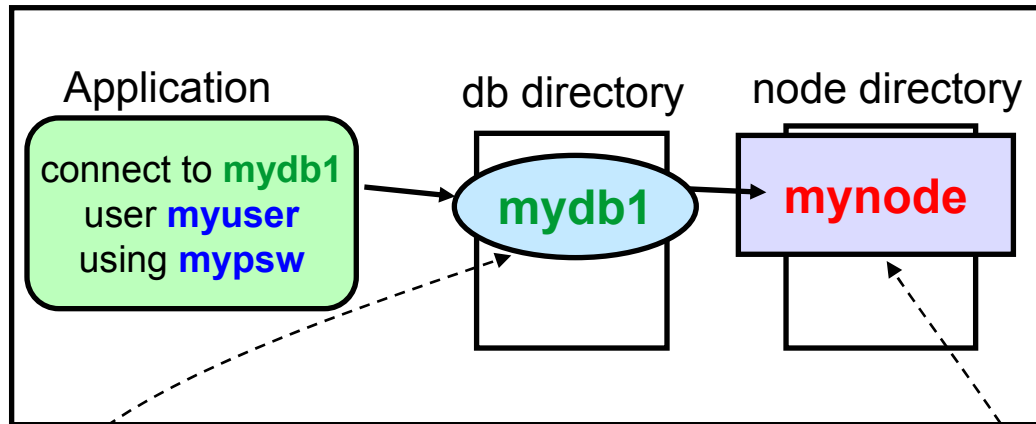

Right click on instance and choose “Configure parameters...”
Find “Communications” section.

myhost.ibm.com

Setup required at the client

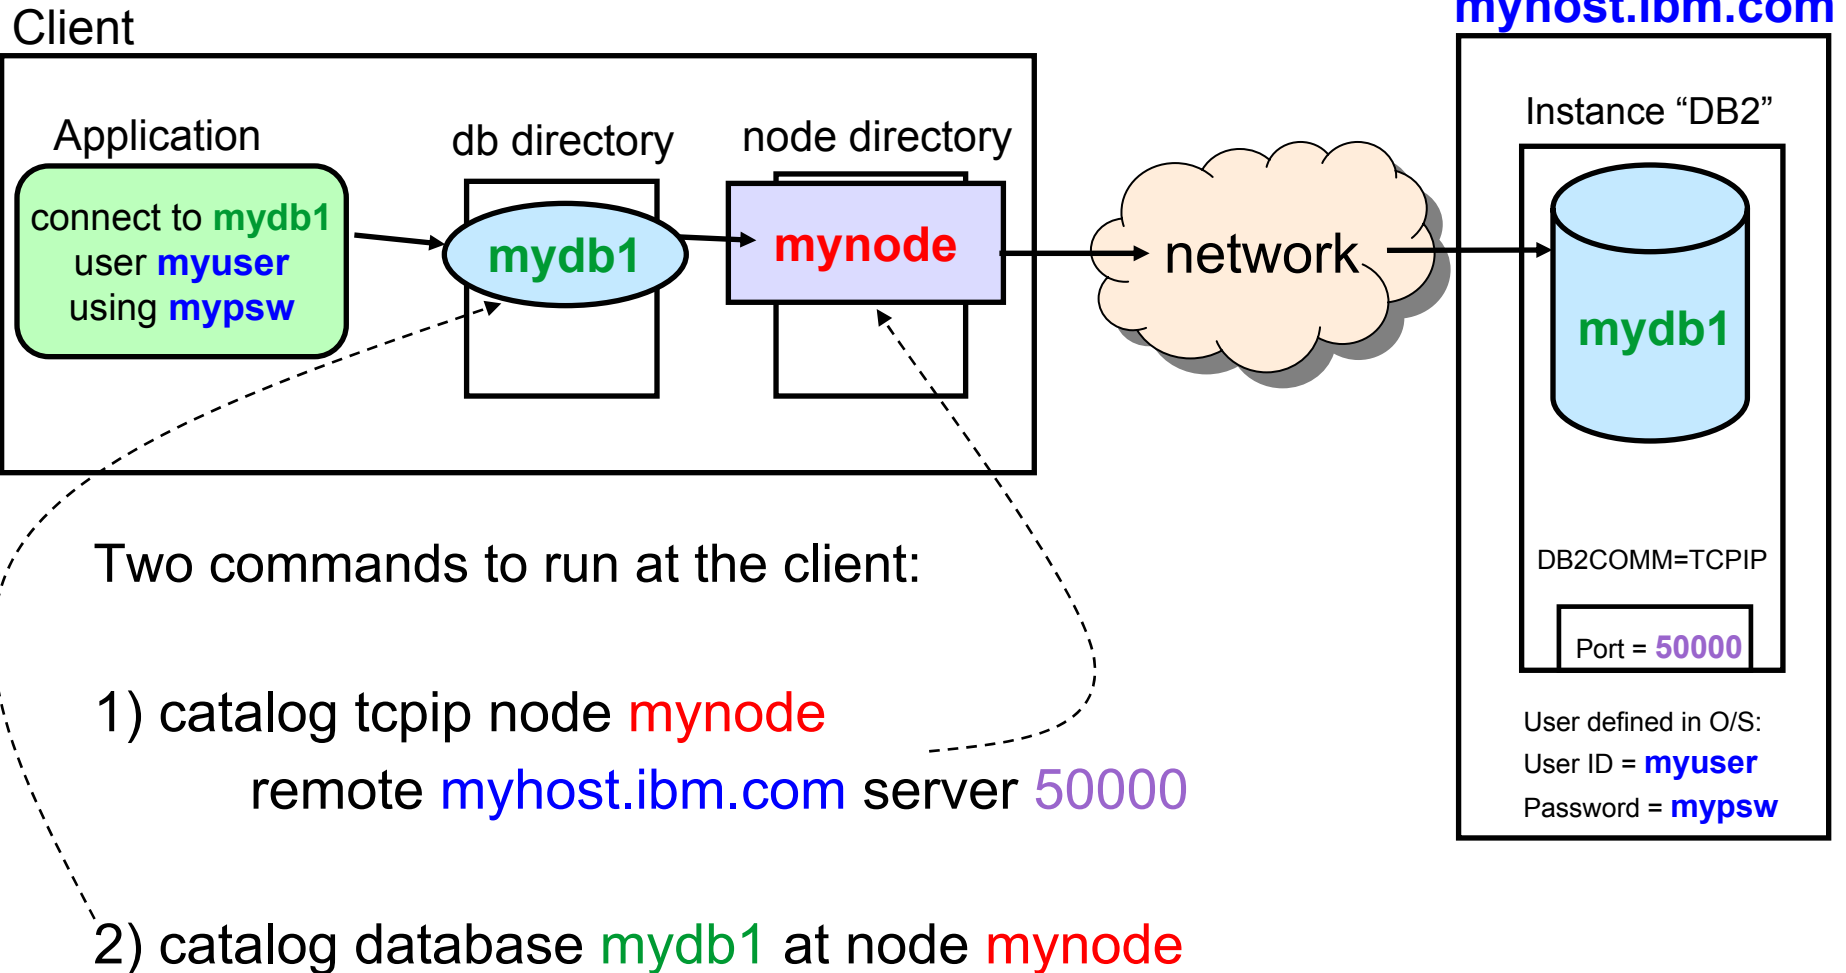

Client

Two commands to run at the client:

- 1) catalog tcpip node mynode
remote myhost.ibm.com server 50000
- 2) catalog database mydb1 at node mynode

Putting both setups together: At the client and server

Setup required at the client

Two commands to run at the client:

- 1) catalog tcpip node mynode
remote myhost.ibm.com server 50000
- 2) catalog database mydb1 at node mynode

OR

■ The Configuration Assistant

- Right click on white space
- Choose “Add database using wizard...”

■ Control Center

- From the “All databases” folder, right click and choose “Add”

